

Thalatta's Accommodation

A plan of below deck

When you come for an overnight trip on Thalatta you will sleep in what was once the main cargo hold. Each person is allocated their own hammock and sea chest, and there are two cabins for the group leaders. Groups have use of two heads (toilets), a separate washroom and a shower. We carry a limited amount of water on board so that means showers have to be limited too!

